CREATE

Once you are finished, simply click the CREATE button, and a pop up will appear indicating that registration was successful.

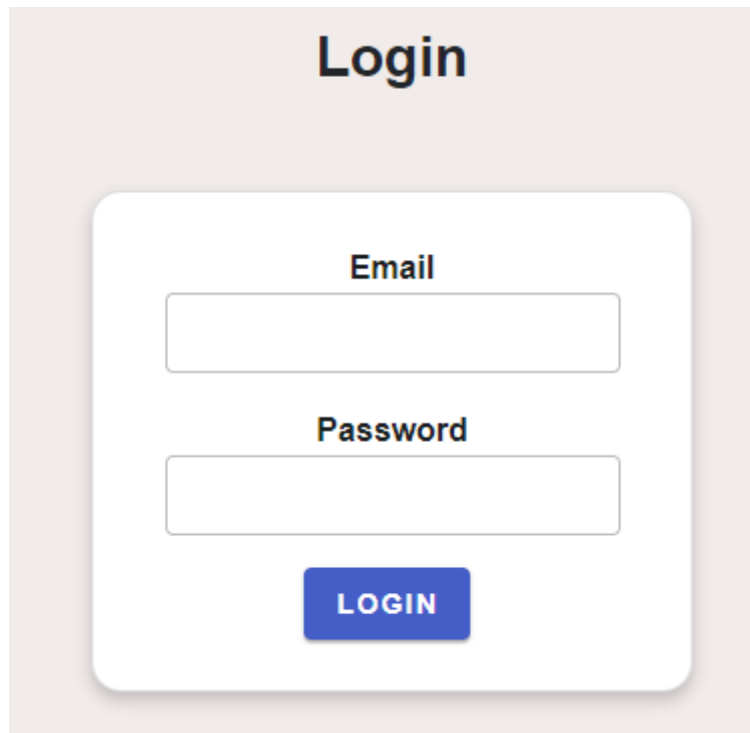

If any required fields² are not filled, or any other errors occur, a message will be shown in the bottom of the screen signifying this.

¹ All information, excluding your email-address, can be updated later.

² Required fields are: Everything except Middle name and description (description is only available to refugees)

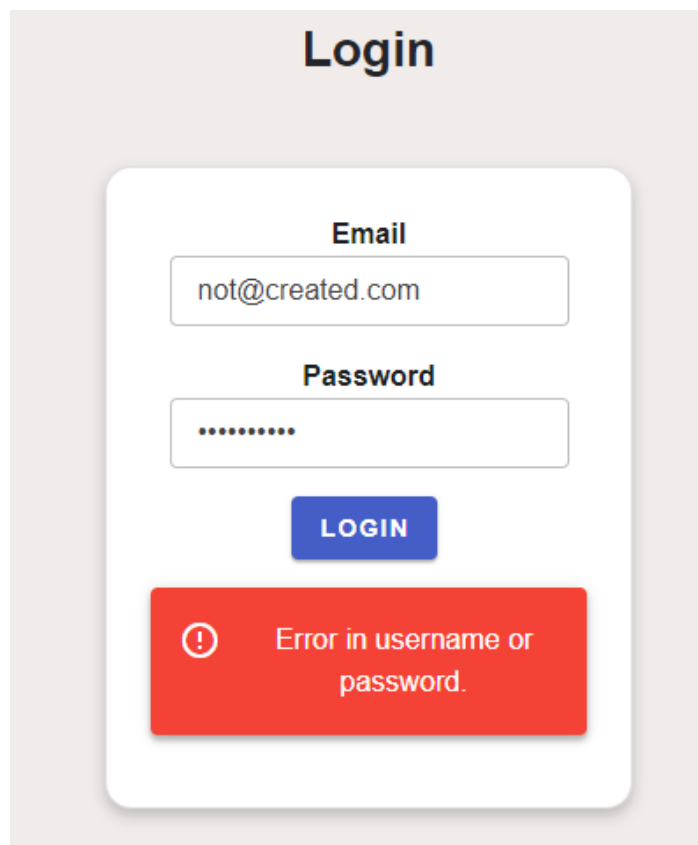

Login

Pressing the Login button will take you to the login page, where you must fill in your email and password.

The image shows a login form titled "Login" in a large, bold, black font. Below the title is a white rounded rectangle containing two input fields. The first field is labeled "Email" in bold black text and is empty. The second field is labeled "Password" in bold black text and is also empty. Below the password field is a blue button with the word "LOGIN" in white, uppercase letters.

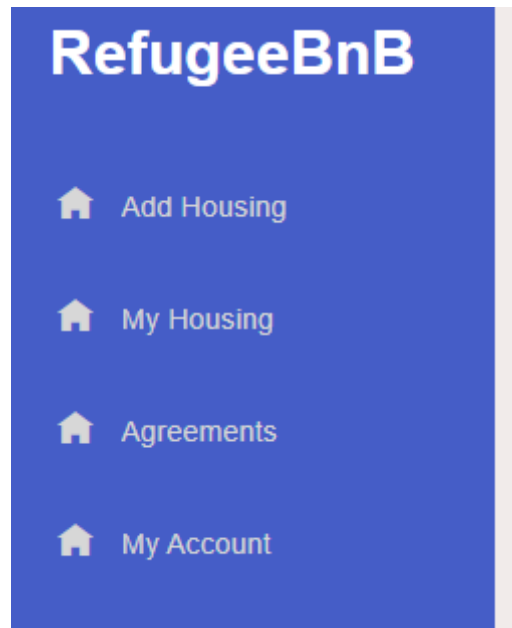

If the email and password entered does not match, or if the email entered is not connected to an account in the system, an error the following error will be shown

Using the system as a host

After successfully logging in as a host, you will see that the navigation-menu has changed so that it now contains links to all actions you are able to perform in the system

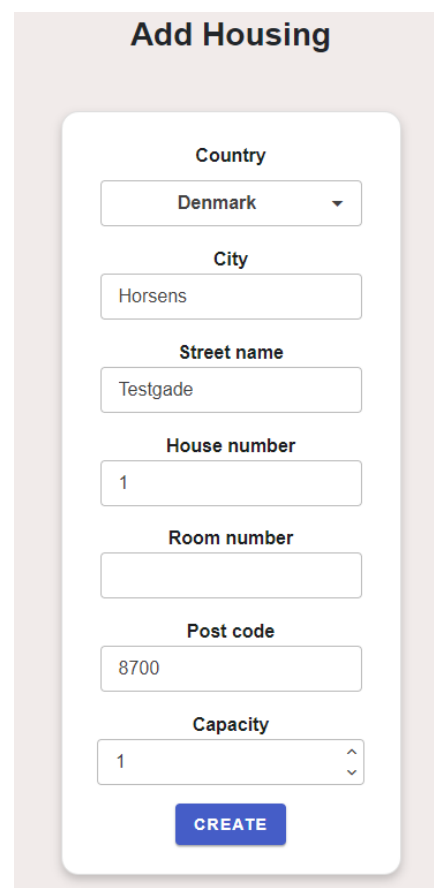

Add Housing

Clicking here allows you to add housing to the system to provide accommodation for refugees.

Simply fill in the information needed³ and click create to add the housing to the system.

After successfully adding housing to the system, a pop-up will appear, asking you to either add more housing, or to go to the overview of all added housing.

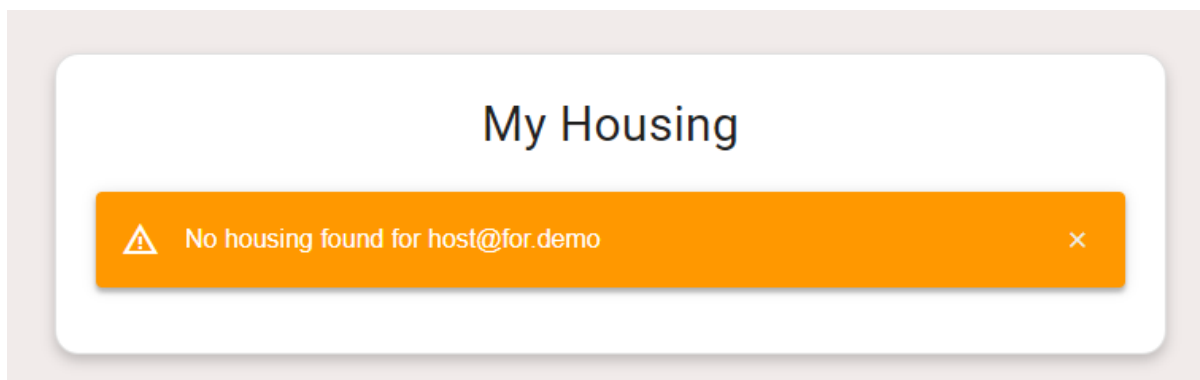

A form titled 'Add Housing' with a light beige background. The form itself is a white rounded rectangle containing several input fields. The fields are labeled as follows: 'Country' (a dropdown menu showing 'Denmark'), 'City' (a text box with 'Horsens'), 'Street name' (a text box with 'Testgade'), 'House number' (a text box with '1'), 'Room number' (an empty text box), 'Post code' (a text box with '8700'), and 'Capacity' (a spinner box with '1'). At the bottom of the form is a blue button with the text 'CREATE' in white.

³ All fields except room number are required, if any required fields are empty, an error message will be shown

My Housing

Clicking this will take you to an overview of all housing you are currently offering in the system.

If you currently have no housing added, you will see this message

If you have added housing, you will be presented with a list of all your housing with the option to delete any housing that is available⁴.

Delete Housing

Pressing the delete button will remove the housing from the system, and a confirmation message will be shown.

Agreements

Here you will see an overview of all agreements you are currently part of, both pending and accepted. For each pending agreement you can either decline or accept them, and for currently accepted agreements, you can cancel them.

⁴ Available meaning that it is not currently included in any accepted agreements.

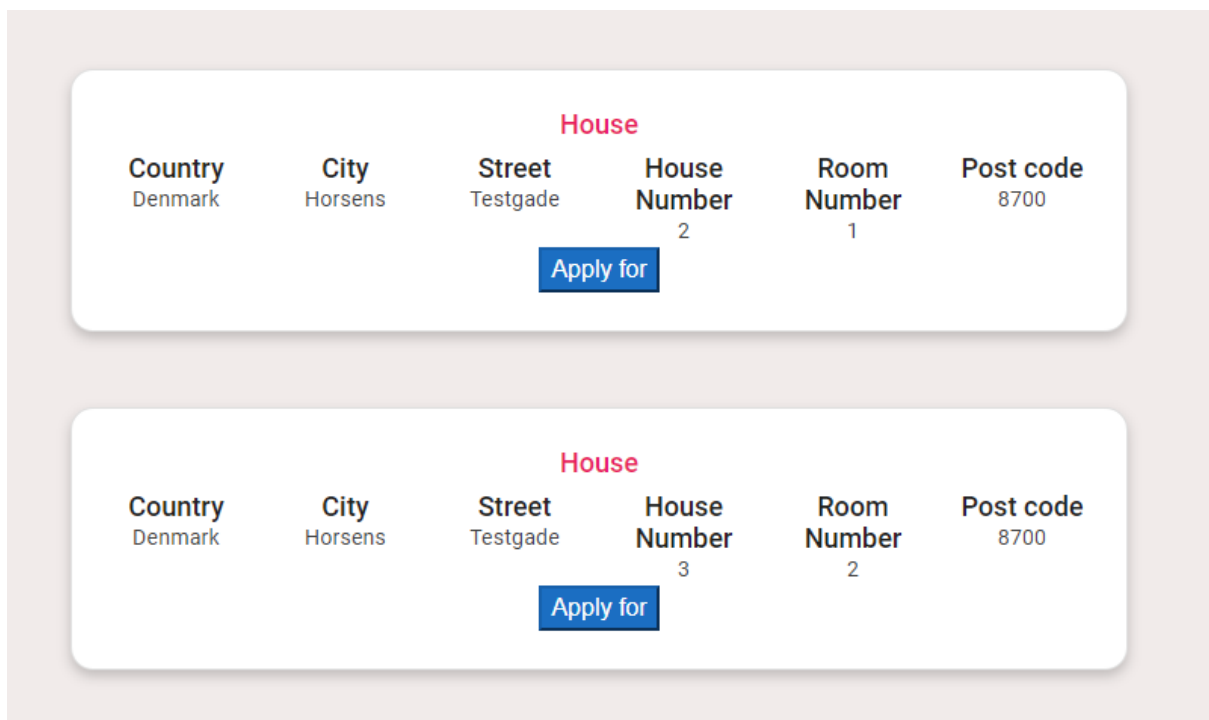

Using the system as a refugee

After successfully logging in as a refugee, you will see that the navigation-menu has changed so that it now contains links to all actions you are able to perform in the system

Display Housing

This is where you will be able to apply for an agreement by choosing available housing from the list.

Two identical white rounded rectangular forms are shown, one above the other, set against a light gray background. Each form contains a table of housing details. The first table has the following data: Country: Denmark, City: Horsens, Street: Testgade, House Number: 2, Room Number: 1, Post code: 8700. The second table has: Country: Denmark, City: Horsens, Street: Testgade, House Number: 3, Room Number: 2, Post code: 8700. Above the 'House Number' column in each table is the word 'House' in red. Below each table is a blue button with the text 'Apply for' in white.

When you click Apply for, a confirmation window will be shown.

Agreement

Here, you will see information about your current confirmed agreement if you have one.

If you do not currently have a confirmed agreement, a message will tell you that.
